

NOTICE OF DATA EVENT

The North Atlantic States Carpenters Benefit Funds (“NASCBF”) consists of the North Atlantic States Carpenters Pension Fund, the Guaranteed Annuity Fund, the Health Benefit Fund, the Annuity Fund and the Vacation Fund. The NASCBF is providing notice of an event that may impact the privacy of information related to certain individuals that were NASCBF employees, participants or beneficiaries.

What Happened? On or about August 18, 2025, the NASCBF observed suspicious activity within the network of the Hamden, CT office. The NASCBF promptly reset passwords, took measures to limit the impact of the incident, and started a forensic investigation with the assistance of third-party specialists. The investigation determined that an unauthorized actor accessed and/or acquired certain files on the systems of the CT office on August 18, 2025. The NASCBF is currently undergoing a comprehensive review of the files to determine the full scope of impacted individuals. The NASCBF will notify impacted individuals by mail as more information becomes available, as necessary. No funds were taken, and participants’ benefits and account balances with the NASCBF are fully intact.

What Information Was Involved? The categories of information that may be involved varies by individual, but could include some combination of name, date of birth, Social Security number, financial account or payment card information with access code, login credentials, tax information, military identification number, medical treatment, history, or diagnosis information, health insurance information, biometric information, driver’s license or state issued identification number, passport number, and/or license plate number.

What NASCBF is Doing. The confidentiality, privacy, and security of information within our care are among NASCBF’s highest priorities. Upon discovering the incident, we promptly launched an investigation to determine what happened and what information may be involved. The NASCBF encourages individuals to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud by reviewing their account statements and monitoring their credit reports for any unauthorized or suspicious activity. Individuals can also review the Steps You Can Take to Protect Your Information below for further guidance.

What You Can Do. The NASCBF is providing notice of the event so that you may take steps to protect information should you feel it is appropriate to do so. We encourage you to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud by reviewing your account statements and monitoring your free credit reports for suspicious activity and to detect errors over the next 12 to 24 months. Individuals can review the below Steps You Can Take to Protect Your Information for further guidance. Individuals whose information is involved can also enroll in complimentary credit monitoring services by following the guidance provided in the letter they receive.

For More Information. The NASCBF understands individuals may have questions about the incident that are not addressed in this notice. If you have questions, please call 855-720-3044, Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. – 9 p.m. ET, excluding U.S. holidays. Spanish language services are available at the number provided.

STEPS YOU CAN TAKE TO PROTECT YOUR INFORMATION

Monitor Your Accounts

Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one (1) free credit report annually from each of the three (3) major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. You may also directly contact the three (3) major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of your credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a one (1) year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven (7) years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any one of the three (3) major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a “credit freeze” on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer’s express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. To request a security freeze, you will need to provide the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two (2) to five (5) years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver’s license or ID card, military identification, etc.); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft if you are a victim of identity theft.

Should you wish to place a credit freeze or fraud alert, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:
